Cogburn Law Offices was founded in 2005 and in seven short years, the firm has grown into a thriving nine-attorney practice with more than 60 dedicated employees and offices in Las Vegas, Henderson and Reno. Amidst this impressive growth, Kristin and Jamie Cogburn have gained membership into the prestigious Multi-Million Dollar Advocates Forum, a renowned group of trial lawyers who have settled a case or won a trial for $2,000,000 or more. Less than 1% of lawyers in the United States qualify for membership. Additionally, the National Trial Lawyers voted Jamie Cogburn, now only 35, into their “Top 40 Under 40”, an honor bestowed to less than 5% of the best and brightest lawyers under the age of 40.

Cogburn Law Offices provides a range of legal services to Nevada residents with emphasis on consumer law, real estate law, personal injury, employment law, commercial litigation, and immigration law. In addition to providing clients with the highest level of legal services and dedicated personal service, the Cogburns actively lobby to protect the rights of consumers, employees and injured parties.

Cogburn Law Offices has been on the forefront of helping Nevadans obtain relief from the housing market crash saving Nevadans over 100 million dollars by successfully completing short sales and loan modifications. In addition to helping clients, Jamie works with several local companies and agencies, such as Nevada Hardest Hit Funds, providing free information and hosting public seminars in Las Vegas and Reno discussing market conditions, changes in the laws and offering solutions for those affected by the current economic crisis. Jamie teaches continuing education classes on consumer law to other attorneys and co-hosts a local radio show on KDWN, “Lawyers, Banks & Money.”

While the firm has grown in size and scope, Kristin and Jamie have maintained their dedication to their clients and kept true to their philosophy that each client and case is unique and deserves personal attention and care. Kristin and Jamie have carefully selected a team of highly effective attorneys and staff who are focused on providing the best representation for their clients. Cogburn Law Offices believes in providing professional, courteous and aggressive representation in order to receive the maximum compensation and legal results for their clients.

Both Jamie and Kristin Cogburn are longtime residents of Nevada and are proud to raise their two young sons, Cole and Carter, in Henderson, Nevada. Kristin and Jamie strongly believe in giving back to the community and take great pride in getting actively involved with many service initiatives and charities. Some of the charities include, Generation Vegas, a local charity of which Jamie is a founding board member, the Boys and Girls Club, Supply our Students and the Clark County Museum Guild.

Jamie Cogburn

Jamie’s areas of expertise include consumer protection, real estate law and business litigation. He believes strongly in protecting individual rights and lobbies with the Nevada Justice Association to protect consumers and injured persons. On behalf of consumers, Jamie has taken on multiple class action cases.

In addition to his induction to the Multi-Million Dollar Advocates Forum and “Top Forty Under Forty”, Jamie has been named a Super Lawyer Rising Star in 2009, 2010 and 2011. He received this prestigious award based on the nomination by fellow attorneys for his outstanding lawyering skills.

Jamie is a member of the Nevada Justice Association, American Association for Justice, Citizens for Justice and National Association of Consumer Advocates.

Jamie earned a Bachelor of Science degree from University of Nevada and graduated cum laude from Thomas Jefferson School of Law.

Kristin Cogburn

Kristin practices in the areas of personal injury and general civil litigation. Kristin has extensive litigation experience representing clients in trial, arbitration and mediation, winning both six and seven figure verdicts and awards. This success led to her membership in the prestigious Multi-Million Dollar Advocates Forum. In addition to her litigation experience, Kristin has successfully obtained thousands of thousands of dollars in settlements, including six figure settlements, for her clients, prior to the filing of lawsuits.

Kristin believes passionately in fighting for the rights of injured persons. She not only aggressively represents her clients to obtain the maximum amount of compensation and justice; she also assists in lobbying efforts to ensure that these rights are protected for all injured persons.

Kristin is a member of the State Bar of Nevada, Nevada Justice Association, Guardians of Justice, Citizens for Justice and the American Association for Justice.

After only 2 ½ years, Kristin graduated magna cum laude, from Arizona State University where she earned her Bachelor of Science degree in Justice Studies. She then obtained her Juris Doctorate from the William S. Boyd School of Law.
