A one-of-a-kind museum and special events venue, Madame Tussauds Las Vegas hosts more than 100 celebrities, athletes and entertainers that are ready to meet their fans. In each of the seven themed rooms, guests are encouraged to touch, interact with and take pictures of these lifelike figures, which makes for a fully immersive and interactive experience.

Find today's A-list celebrities in Club Tussauds, where visitors can snap some photos for evidence that they partied like VIPs with the stars, including Leonardo DiCaprio, Britney Spears and Sandra Bullock.

In Sports Zone, fans meet iconic athletes—including the incomparable Muhammad Ali, UFC champ Chuck Liddell and Andre Agassi—and go “head to chest” with the gigantic Shaquille O’Neal as he intimidatingly blocks the hoop.

Song-and-dance legends from all eras populate the Music Room. Beyoncé and Rihanna are ready to party while Tupac and Michael Jackson want to show their skills. Also guests can audition for Simon Cowell in an interactive karaoke experience.

Visit Viva Vegas to meet the legendary personalities and performers that have shaped Sin City. Find classic icons like the Rat Pack, Elvis and Liberace and some contemporary acts performing in Las Vegas today, including Celine Dion, Blue Man Group and Criss Angel.

Everyone’s favorite super heroes are in the new Marvel Super Heroes 4D Experience. Enter to meet iconic comics characters like Nick Fury and the Hulk; then experience an animated 4D cinema attraction with high-impact special effects that make guests feel immersed in the action.

Best of all, each room is available for private events, from dinners and receptions to corporate team-building, brand launches and cocktail parties at very competitive prices. ■
